

State
Historical Society of North Dakota

Since 1895

Mammut Americanum

COLORING ACTIVITY

Mammut americanum (Highgate Mastodon) was one of the elephant-like animals that lived in North Dakota at the end of the Ice Age about 11,000 years ago. Adult mastodons were about 10 feet tall at the shoulder. Like its cousin, the woolly mammoth, mastodons were cold-climate animals covered with a coat of long, shaggy hair.