HISTORY FOR everyone.

Explore objects in the ND Heritage Center & State Museum relating to WWI where you find this symbol. The red remembrance poppy was inspired by John McCrae's WWI poem "In Flanders Fields."

Find these objects in our galleries.

Doughboy Uniform

Some North Dakotans volunteered to serve even before the US entered the war.

German Machine Gun

WWI saw many technological advances. This gun fired rapidly and had a water-cooled barrel.

Ring

Wounded at the Battle of Verdun, a US soldier carved this ring from a French coin while convalescing.

German Reichsmark

The war caused hyperinflation in Germany, which led to further political instability.

Gas Mask

America produced thousands of gas masks. There were also special masks for horses and dogs.
